Choice Health and Wellbeing Group (CHWG) offer services that make a positive impact on the individual lives of people with disability from the age for 16-65 years. CHWG supports each participant to feel empowered and part of their local community through understanding their particular needs, goals and ambitions, by building a capable and competent team. CHWG inspires to create meaningful careers for their workforce, enabling them to be genuine advocates for those they support, while also finding ways to give back to the community.
